

Respected,

I would like to introduce myself as a candidate for the Front End Developer position within your company.

For me to receive a commission to build a website is an honour and an act of trust.

I understand that a website is central to a businesses brand identity, reputation and how customers perceive it. Because of this I build not just on looks but also with one eye firmly on the future.

I believe that good design is based on thorough research and a firm understanding of what the client wants.

Through schooling and volunteer work I have learnt how to bring fresh, creative digital services to businesses who want to grow online. The secret to my success has always been my ability to use my technical skill and industry insight to meet digital goals.

On a personal level I am someone who focuses on results and who can work to deadlines.

In conclusion I want to state that I would be very grateful for a chance to prove myself, and look forward to meeting you to discuss possible my application further.

Please find attached my CV for your consideration and feel free to can contact me to arrange a personal interview if you feel I have the potential that you are looking for in a candidate.

Yours sincerely,

Jelena Krstic
